

Energy

Full power for your goals

Whether it is oil, gas, mining, power supply or renewable energy, the sector is undergoing constant change, and we assist you with the necessary adjustments. With the help of our expert knowledge we accompany transactions, restructurings, privatisations and outsourcing initiatives from project planning to first steps and negotiations and all the way to successful implementation. Our effective teams mean we are also in a position to initiate due diligence processes, local change offices or negotiating teams.
